

The 4th Iveron Choral Conference

Friday October 30 – Sunday November 1, 2020

With the blessing of Archbishop Andronik, the ROCA Assistance Fund is organizing this two and a half day Russian Orthodox conference which honors the Iveron Myrrh-streaming Icon of the Mother of God and Her keeper Brother Joseph (Jose Cortez-Munoz), who suffered a martyr's end twenty three years ago. This conference allows all interested to participate in choir practices, discussions and seminars which will conclude with the Divine service in both Church Slavonic and English. All participants are encouraged to not miss a moment!

The conference registration and program including the Saturday All-Night Vigil and Sunday Divine Liturgy will be at the Holy New Martyrs and Confessors of Russia Church at Mountainview in Middleburg, New York. The conference will be in compliance with current state health regulations and there will be a maximum capacity of participants. Please contact the ROCA Assistance Fund to register.

The total registration fee with lodging on the premises is $125 per participant. Total registration with special offsite lodging is available at $250 per participant (double occupancy) or $350 per participant (single occupancy) only through October 12th, 2020.

Financial assistance is available on a need basis for a limited number of participants. Call the ROCA Assistance Fund for more information.

For the first time there will also be a children's program on Saturday October 31, 2020 as a part of the Iveron Choral Conference. For more information contact the ROCA Assistance Fund.

Transportation:

All participants need to arrange their own transportation to the beginning of the conference, and home (or airport) after the end of the services on Sunday.
